We believe there is but one establishment of bis kind in the city. It is owned by Mr. Henry Chapman, 221 Adams street, who sant on the following statement of his banisms. It is an agreeable episode to the rather dry statistics of the other establishments. Mr. Chapman's trade may not be a unusual cone, but he is evidently a poetical mas. Here he goes:

To show the extent of my trade,
As near as I can at one view,
Three thousand or more of mw blades
Have by me been filed and set true.

There humanered and tempered them,
—And if twisted—Prestraightened them,
All the has been done at my shop.
